

Love in Literature

Sonnet Review

Begin

+ An English Sonnet is made up of an octave and a sestet.

■ True

■ False

+

The rhyme scheme for an English sonnet is acac dbdb egeg ff

■ True

■ False

+

Where is the volta located in an English sonnet?

- Line 6
- Half way
- The couplet
- sestet

+

This is an example of iambic pentameter, “If music be the food of love, play on.”

■ True

■ False

+ Iambic pentameter has 12 syllables in each line and 5 alternating unstressed and stressed syllables.

■ True

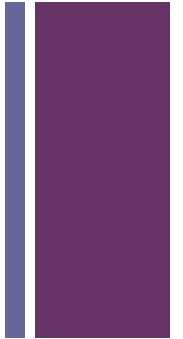

■ False

Identify the stressed syllables in the following quote,
“How do I love thee? Let me count the ways.”

- How, I, Thee, Me, The
- Do, Love, Let, Count, Ways
- How, Love, Let, Ways
- Do, Thee, Me, Ways

+

Incorrect

Try Again

Correct

An English sonnet is made up of three quatrains and a couplet.

An Italian sonnet is made up of an octave and a sestet.

Correct

The rhyme scheme for an English sonnet is abab cdcd efef gg.

Correct

“If music be the food of love, play on”

Ba-Bum / ba-Bum / ba-Bum / ba-Bum / ba-Bum

Next Question

Correct

In an English sonnet, the volta occurs in the couplet.

Correct

Iambic pentameter has 10 syllables in each line and 5 pairs of alternating unstressed and stressed syllables.

Correct

“How do I love thee? Let me count the ways”

+

Good Job!!!

